CONSIGNMENT AGREEMENT

Thank you for choosing to consign with us. Please read through our consignment policy and feel free to ask if you have any questions. We look forward to working with you!

This agreement allows for the displaying and selling of items consigned effective immediately in store and/or online.

Consignment Policy

Found Interiors will display the item(s) described on Exhibit A in the store for 90 days. The selling price for each item will be reduced by 15% after 30 days and an additional 15% after 60 days. Found Interiors may give additional discounts at its discretion.

In the event an item is sold during the 90-day period, Found Interiors will pay Consignor 50% of the net sales price for each item. Consignor may choose to receive payment by means of check or store credit. Consignor is responsible for requesting a check in order to receive one. Monies unclaimed after 1 year will become void. Alternatively, Consignor may use store credit and receive a 15% discount on regular priced items.

If an item has not been sold or picked up within 5 days after the expiration of the 90-day period, the item shall automatically become property of Found Interiors and may be sold or donated without notice or further benefit to Consignor. It is the Consignor's responsibility to contact Found Interiors after the consignment period for reconciliation. All items presented/placed on consignment must be legally owned by the Consignor, and be free of all liens and encumbrances. The store has the right to terminate this contract or return individual items at any time for any reason.

I have carefully read and agree to the above terms and conditions.
